

IMAGINED ORDER

The Echo In The Halls Of This House

Imagined Order is Shawn Turner, Joshua Moore, and Dan Leffler. The three members who live in different states, share a history of making music and recording together. The unexpected making of the debut album 'The Echo In The Halls Of This House' brought them back together after fifteen-plus years. There was no plan or conversation about recording an album. There weren't even microphones and recording equipment in place. The writing started from a place of survival, a means of coping with life's conditions that had been bottled up and repressed that were then coming out sideways. Songs, the studio, and the album would unfold over a year and turn into the beautiful disaster that is now Imagined Order.
